UNOPPOSED MOTION TO TRAVEL

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

NOW COMES RODOLFO RUDY DELGADO, Defendant by and through his undersigned counsel, and brings this Motion for Permission to Travel, and in support hereof, Defendant would show the Court the following:

Defendant is currently on bond, and is in compliance with all conditions of pretrial release. Defendant respectfully seeks permission from the Court to travel from McAllen, Texas to San Antonio, Texas then to Austin, Texas. The purpose for the travel is to meet with undersigned counsel, and then participate in several other meetings scheduled with two different attorneys in Austin. All of these meetings are for the express purpose of attorney/client consultation regarding the pending criminal case and Defendant's administrative issues relative to the instant case and its impact on his judicial position. Additionally, this week will mark the one-year anniversary of his son's death in Austin, and Defendant and his wife want to travel to Austin to visit the place of his death in memory of their son for emotional reasons. Defendant plans to travel on Friday, February 23, 2018 to San Antonio, Texas and return to McAllen, Texas on Monday, February 26, 2018.

Undersigned counsel communicated with Assistant United States Attorney Julie Searle and she indicated that the government does not object to the Motion to Travel. Undersigned counsel's office also conferred with Mr. Delgado's Pretrial Officer, Mrs. Laura Iglesias who stated she has no objections to the travel.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Defendant prays that this Honorable Court will grant his permission to travel.

Respectfully submitted,
